UNOMIG'S PRESS RELEASE

The Secretary-General of the United Nations has expressed his concern with regard to the 20 September incident between the Georgian Ministry of Interior units and Abkhaz de facto armed personnel, which resulted in the death of two persons and the wounding of several others.

UNOMIG's Fact Finding Team is independently engaged in establishing facts relating to this incident. This includes visiting the locations as indicated by the sides, as well as meeting with witnesses.

UNOMIG reiterates the call of the Secretary-General on all sides to exercise maximum restraint and to prevent any further escalation of the situation.
